

The James and Diana Ramsay Foundation Scholarship through the Leaders Institute of SA

The James and Diana Ramsay Foundation Scholarship (JDRFS) will provide an opportunity to a senior manager or CEO working in the Not for Profit sector to expand their knowledge, leadership skills and contribution to their organisation by providing one fully funded scholarship, or two half scholarships to participate in the 2017 Governor's Leadership Foundation program. The JDRFS will be offered to someone working in the charitable sector in one of the Foundation's funding areas: visual or performing arts, medical research or youth at risk.

The scholarship, or two half scholarships, will be offered and facilitated through the Leaders Institute of South Australia, however the successful applicant must be working for an organisation that has DGR1 & TCC status to be eligible. It is desirable that the recipient remain employed by this organisation for at least twelve months from the completion of the program.

The key outcomes intended are for the recipient to be able to apply this knowledge to enhance operations and outcomes within their organisation, improve their own leadership skills, and assist in leading change and good corporate governance and practices within the organisation in which they work and ultimately the NFP sector.

<http://www.leadersinstitute.com.au/programs/governors-leadership-foundation/index.html>